

Rev. Alicia R. Hudnall

Alicia Rachele Hudnall also known as Lisa was born in Silver Spring Maryland to the late and great Frances A. Black. She grew up in the AME church and has held membership and served in various capacities at Bethel A.M.E. in Reidsville, North Carolina, First AME in Manassas, Virginia, and Falls Road AME in Baltimore Maryland.

In 1996 she married and committed to spend the rest of her life loving Rev. Aaron A. Hudnall, Jr. They are the proud parents of three wonderful young adults, Naomi, Aaron III, and Faith.

She is grateful for the privilege to have served as a Steward, Stewardess, Usher, Choir member, Pastor's Aid member, Missionary Society as well as the Lay Organization. She formally served the Capital District for 8 years as the Recording Secretary and an Executive Assistant to Presiding Elder Johnny R. Calhoun.

Rev. Alicia accepted the call into ministry in October 2001, and enrolled full time at Morgan State University in January of 2002. She graduated from Morgan in December of 2005 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. In April of 2009 she was ordained an Itinerant Deacon. In December of 2010 she completed her Master's degree in Theology at St. Mary's Seminary and Ecumenical Institute. In April of 2011 she was ordained an Itinerant Elder in the 61st Session of Washington Annual Conference in the Second Episcopal District, by Bishop Adam J. Richardson Jr. On April 16th 2021 during the 71st Session of the Washington Annual Conference she was appointed the Pastor of Cowdensville AME Church by Servant Bishop James L. Davis.

Rev. Alicia is constantly amazed and grateful for the love, mercy and grace the God has showered her family with over the years. Philippians 1:6 which states, "He who has begun a good work in you shall perform it until the day of Jesus Christ", reminds her that God is not finished with her yet!
